Netiquette and Email Etiquette

Netiquette

- Netiquette refers to internet guidelines that advise people on how to communicate and treat others when interacting online.
- These guidelines can apply to multiple aspects of the internet, such as email, social media and video chats.
- Practicing netiquette is like practicing etiquette because both involve interacting with others respectfully.
- However, the rules for netiquette are specific to online communication.

10 rules for practicing netiquette

- 1. Practice using empathy
- 2. Use a friendly tone
- 3. Use respectful language
- 4. Send messages if appropriate
- 5. Check grammar mistakes
- 6. Respect other people's privacy
- 7. Ensure messages are clear
- 8. Create posts that are appropriate
- 9. Respond to messages on time
- 10. Read content thoroughly

Rules for Email Etiquette

1. Keep your tone professional.
2. Avoid vague subject lines – e.g. "Follow Up to Our Call"
3. Use proper email punctuation.
4. Practice good grammar.
5. Resist emojis in email.
6. Choose your email salutation carefully.
7. Avoid all CAPS or all lower case.
8. Triple-check your recipient's name.
9. Make simple email address with name, initials and numbers.
10. Always use standard fonts and formatting.

11. Mention attachments in the mail.
12. Perfect your email signature.
13. Fill out your email fields properly.
14. Use Bcc appropriately.
15. Use 'Reply all' sparingly.
16. Think before forwarding.
17. Respond in a timely manner. Don't add that 'Sent from my phone' caveat.
18. Introduce yourself.
19. Structure the email properly.
20. Be careful with humor.
21. Reply to all your emails.